PART VI—Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 31st March 1944 —

L A BILL No 17 OF 1944

A Bill further to amend the Indian Bar Councils Act, 1926, and the Legal Practitioners Act, 1879

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Bar Councils Act, 1926 (XXXVIII of 1926), and the Legal Practitioners Act, 1879 (XVIII of 1879), for the purposes hereinafter appearing, It is hereby enacted as follows —

1. Short Title.—This Act may be called the Indian Bar Councils and Legal Practitioners (Amendment) Act, 194

2. Amendment of section 10, Act XXXVIII of 1926.—To sub-section (1) of section 10 of the Indian Bar Councils Act, 1926 (XXXVIII of 1926), the following explanation shall be added, namely —

"Explanation —If an advocate has been convicted of an offence under section 124A of the Indian Penal Code (XLV of 1860), or under any of the provisions of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1908 (XIV of 1908), or of the Defence of India Act, 1939 (XXXV of 1939), or the rules made thereunder, but has not been found guilty of any violence or of any incitement to or abetment of violence, he shall not be liable to be proceeded against under this sub-section "

3. Insertion of new section 13A in Act XVIII of 1879.—After section 13 of the Legal Practitioners Act, 1879, the following section shall be inserted, namely —

"13A Sections 12 and 13 not to apply in certain cases —Notwithstanding anything contained in section 12 or section 13, no pleader or mukhtar holding a certificate as aforesaid shall be liable to be proceeded against under either of those sections, merely on the ground that he has been convicted of any offence under section 124A of the Indian Penal Code (XLV of 1860), or under any of the provisions of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1908 (XIV of 1908), or of the Defence of India Act, 1939 (XXXV of 1939), or the rules made thereunder, if he has not been found guilty of any violence or of any incitement to or abetment of violence"

4. Retrospective application of Act to certain cases.—Any advocate, pleader or mukhtar against whom any action has been taken before the commencement of this Act, by a High Court under the Indian Bar Councils Act, 1926 (XXXVIII of 1926), or the Legal Practitioners Act, 1879 (XVIII of 1879), on the ground that he has been convicted of an offence under section 124A of the Indian Penal Code (XLV of 1860), or under any of the provisions of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1908 (XIV of 1908), or of the Defence of India Act, 1939 (XXXV of 1939), or the rules made thereunder, shall have a right to apply to the High Court concerned for a review of the order passed against him, and such High Court shall vacate such order if the advocate, pleader or mukhtar has not been found guilty of any violence or of any incitement to or abetment of violence

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The amendment to the Bar Councils Act and the Legal Practitioners Act envisaged above has been made necessary by the action taken by certain High Courts acting together with their respective Bar Councils, striking off the names of Advocates from the rolls of Bar Councils because of convictions by Criminal Courts on account of the political opinions held by the Advocates or for acts committed by them in the process of giving expression to such political opinions It has been felt by responsible members of Bar Councils that such action was imperative in the face of the present wording of the Bar Councils Act and the Legal Practitioners Act The inequity of a person being deprived of his levelihood for political opinions held by him can easily be understood by all in this country, and in order to obviate the difficulties experienced by the members of the legal profession outlined above the present Bill has been introduced Bengal Legislative Assembly Department.

NOTIFICATION

No 1232—17th June 1944—In pursuance of the provisions of rule 50 of the Bengal Legislative Assembly Procedure Rules, the following Bill which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Assembly on the 12th May, 1944, is hereby published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto

THE BENGAL TENANCY (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1944.

A BILL

to amend further the Bengal Act VIII of 1885

WHEREAS it is expedient to make further provision for the amendment of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885,

It is hereby enacted as follows —

Short title, extent and commencement

1. (i) This Act may be called the Bengal Tenancy (Amendment) Act, 1944

(ii) It extends to the whole of Bengal

(iii) It shall come into force on such date as the Provincial Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint

Amendment of Schedule

2. In Schedule III, Part III—Applications, in column 1 (Description of application), in item 6, the expression "and not being a decree for a sum of money exceeding Rs 500, exclusive of any interest which may have accrued after decree upon the sum decreed, but inclusive of the costs of executing such decree," shall be omitted

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

This amendment is necessary in order to prevent the landlords from dragging for 12 years an execution of a rent decree exceeding Rs 500 under the provision of the Limitation Act, 1908, and excluding the special limitation of three years provided by the Bengal Tenancy Act This exclusion of the execution proceedings from the special limitation of the present Bengal Tenancy Act has caused widespread distress amongst the tenants who cannot come out of the clutches of the landlords for a long period of 12 years It is to remedy this defect in the Act that the present amendment is required Moreover now that a new provision has been made in the Bengal Tenancy Act to put up to sale only the tenancy in respect of which the arrear rents are due in the execution of the rent decree, there is no necessity of extending the period of execution for 12 years as required before

NOTIFICATION

No 1234L A —17th June 1944 —In pursuance of the provisions of rule 50 of the Bengal Legislative Assembly Procedure Rules, the following Bill which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Assembly on the 12th May, 1944, is hereby, published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto

THE BENGAL LAND REVENUE SALES (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1944.

A BILL

to amend Act XI of 1859

WHEREAS it is expedient to make further provision for the amendment of the Bengal Land Revenue Sales Act, 1859,

It is hereby enacted as follows —

Short title, extent and commencement

1. (1) This Act may be called the Bengal Land-revenue Sales (Amendment) Act, 1944

(2) It extends to the whole of Bengal

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Provincial Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint

Amendment of section 37

2. In the 7th line of section 37 of the Bengal Land Revenue Sales Act, 1859, hereinafter referred to as the said Act, after the words "under-tenures", the words "lying entirely within that estate" shall be inserted

Amendment of section 37

3. In the second exception of section 37 of the said Act, after the words "at a fixed rent" the words "or tenures held at a fixed rent or rate of rent or rent-free tenures existing for more than fifty years prior to the date of such sale" shall be inserted

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Since the Calcutta High Court Full Bench decision in the case of Khemankari Dassi vs Rani Harsha Mukhi Dassi reported in 47 Calcutta Weekly Notes, page 582, a difficulty has arisen regarding annulment of a tenure partly within one estate sold for arrears of revenue and partly within another estate which cannot, however, be separated without the partition of these estates If the portion of the tenure is wholly included within one estate and partly within another and the tenure cannot be divided without the division of the estates by metes and bounds, such a tenure should not be annulled by a revenue sale without subjecting the tenure-holder to a multiplicity of suits In order to safeguard the interests of such a tenure-holder, the first amendment is absolutely necessary

Regarding the second amendment, it is hardly possible to trace an existing tenure, even it be created before the Permanent Settlement, from the very old records of the Settlement most of which are now lost or rendered useless after a lapse of 150 years and the demarkation marks, boundaries and description of the lands under that tenure have undergone considerable changes so as to baffle proper identification There is nothing in the present Land Revenue Sales Act like the provision of section 50(2) of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, for a presumption of a tenure arising from the time of the Permanent Settlement by showing in respect thereof payment of a fixed rent or rate of rent which has not been changed during the twenty years immediately before the institution of a suit or proceeding for the same Consequently, the tenure-holder is always to feel the insecurity of his tenancy and is subjected to great difficulties at every revenue sale when he is to run the risk of an annulment of his tenure whatever improvement he might have made in the lands in the meantime In order to protect his interest, this amendment is required

The holidays will be allowed to accumulate, up to one week being added to holidays subsequently earned

Provincial Governments will be empowered to exempt any factory in which the leave rules provide for benefits substantially similar to those included in the Bill

The Royal Commission on Labour made certain modest recommendations for voluntary action in regard to paid leave for factory workers, but these did not lead to substantial progress The International Labour Conference adopted at its twentieth session in 1936 a Draft Convention on Holidays with Pay The Government of India has not ratified the convention, but Provincial Governments and interests concerned have been consulted on the subject of Holidays with Pay The present Bill which follows these consultations covers not an unimportant part of the Draft Convention

Opportunity is also taken to provide for the grant of compensatory holidays against the loss by a worker of his weekly holidays as a result of any order or rule made under the Factories Act
